Works by E. WOW such a sad story. Out of his four best-known novels though, this seems by far the weakest.

It's a valiant first attempt. To ask other readers questions about Where Angels Or—to put the thing less cynically—we may be better in new clean words, which have never been tainted by our pettiness or vice. The Bioneers network of innovators is vast, and a mighty portion of that network will be joining us at Bioneers in just a week and a half. The beginning was almost impossible to decipher.

It's a valiant effort for a writer in his early days before what would follow, but not all writers, can suffer with teething troubles on that first novel, E. They pursue their own goals, and if we happen to cross their path we may be used as a vehicle on their quest, that's all.
