A long-time friend etches the extraordinary and exhaustive life of the lion of American letters. Trained as an accountant, Barney was still a British citizen when Norman was born. Enlargecover.Perhapsbetter. Mailer came into adulthood with a noticeable chip on his shoulder and some well-aired grievances, and he kept the pattern up throughout a long and productive life. But all that detail goes towards building a picture of a man whose fantastic energy went into a life as wild, as dark, as confrontational as anything he could imagine in his books.
