Warner Classics. For this reason, the violin lines in all ten sonatas must be interpreted with the keyboard sound in mind. The harmonies are rich and lush. Barjeantane is the name of a house on the grounds of the Academie. The first movement differs from the textbook sonata-allegro only in texture and tone, not in the basics of its actual form: the two principal subjects are both given in their traditional keys and, unlike many of Schubert 's sonata-movements, the recapitulation takes place in the home key of G major. Molto moderato e cantabile. In this short work the young Lindberg demonstrates an impressive ability to develop the musical dramaturgy and to manipulate time and momentum. The middle section features a heavily chromatic passage on the piano, while the violin is in octave double stops, thus creating a sense of dynamic waves.
