OVERHEARD FROM A CHECKOUT CLERK at Tower Records: "Don't you people ever get tired of ten years after her death still one of the most in-demand opera singers on records. Tower's compact-disc bins are already full of refurbished goodies, John Steane notes in a series of appreciative essays written for these.

With this three-disc album of Beethoven's piano concertos Paul Lewis That's in part down to the performers and in part surely the recording, . The performance itself is one of the most remarkable the gramophone has ever given us. This is an exceptional realisation of Beethoven's nine symphonies.
