The reaction on social media to the piece was very telling. Arendt believed that it was a simple matter for a totalitarian regime to ensure that the people it had turned into outcasts were received as outcasts wherever they went. Thegreatsocialchangewillhavecomebythefactofthatnewsortofrevolution During the South African War the mood was starker, no doubt, than it is now, and the Aliens Act of confirmed a rampant mistrust of foreigners, which the outbreak of war in Europe only served to spread. A truck arrives with sacks of sandwiches and cases of mineral water. The police will tear down the placards, of course, but rarely before they have been read; and they may arrest the distributors of the fliers, but this does not recall the fliers which have been put forth. The first can be negotiated on a more or less level footing with opposing interests. In the South African War the mood was starker, no doubt, than it is now, and the Aliens Act of confirmed a rampant mistrust of foreigners, which the outbreak of war in Europe only served to spread. Il a fallu lire entre les lignes.
