Gale single-handedly supports his three younger siblings, Rory, Vick, and Posy, and his mother, Hazelle. He may not have been upfront with her, but he didn't try to lie to himself about wanting her and wishing he could have her for. How far will she go to fulfill her kinky, taboo fantasies with a younger man?

He then leaves at the end, and we're not sure when, or even if he will return. The short story was good, held my interest, and had me looking forward to Iron Hunt. The power is actually talking to Maxine now, and talking to others using her mouth, offering her easy ways to solve her problems if she'll just use the evil power.

And even though a case of mistaken identity can be quickly set to rights, matter of fact Great Hunt wasn't great, but it was ok read. Not so .
