He kept raising questions: Why hadn't his crusades had more effect on cities? There, he learned a framework for thinking about critical issues that would stay with him for life: "We were encouraged to think things through for ourselves, but always with the unique authority of Scripture as our guide. When Billy was ready for college in the parachurch network provided all the options he and his parents considered. At Wheaton he also encountered a student culture with little interest in this. This is a biography of the great American evangelist, Billy Graham, with special emphasis on his ministry that has taken him to every inhabited continent and to nearly every country in the world where he has preached a simple gospel with remarkable effect. Fire is thus fought by fire. Read. After that came a very successful preaching tour of the USSR, and then a remarkable visit to repressive Romania, where over people poured into the streets.
