The historical context is essential to understanding his purposes. Augustine clearly holds that the establishment and success of the Roman Empire, along with its embracing of Christianity as its official religion, was part of the divine plan of the true God. Latin Christianity: Its Founder, Tertullian.

Neither did Troy perish because it lost Minerva. Aug 29, CJBowen rated it it was good. Rulers have the right to establish any law that does not conflict with the law of God. Augustine argues. Wikisource has original works written by or about: Augustine of Hippo. Rulers have the right to establish any law that does not conflict with the law of God. a costly burial does any good to a wicked man, a squalid burial, or none at all, may harm the godly. In other words, the place consecrated to so great a goddess was chosen, not that from it none might be led out a captive, but that in it all the captives might be immured.
