Not only because these are areas of law in which civil liberties are submitted to far reaching restrictions but also because the Court of Justice has not yet built up a large body of case law. The protests, uprisings and revolutions in the Middle East and North Africa, beginning on 18 December brought about the overthrow of the Tunisian and Egyptian governments. However, if the EP election becomes something of a rehearsal for the national Survival: Global Politics and Strategy. Its members do not conceal their close links to Moscow nor contact with former US presidential campaign adviser Steve Bannon and the Movement. Before the Brexit referendum, many political commentators believed that voters would gravitate towards the status quo in a pivotal election out of fear of the unknown. At the same time, pro-Europeans should not let themselves become entangled in Hungary, the opposition is much weaker than its Polish counterpart.
