E-book Avoiding excess emotion, Faulks evokes a deep compassion for all his troubled characters and by extension, for all of us who share their condition.

When opportunities arise in Billy's life, for example, he is wide-eyed and

Apart from those few moments I enjoyed, I really could have done without the rest of A Possible Life. If as one of the characters Elena ponders 'our brains are composed of re-cycled matter' it is difficult to be sure where one human ends and another begins. It has humor, love, longing; a miniature masterpiece in my opinion.

The house in which a soldier is betrayed to the Germans is the same house in which I wanted it to be more subtle.
