Then came the Puritan period, when the people of this country can be truly described as godly and god-fearing--one of the noblest periods in our history. Paul tells the Galatians "faith worketh by love.

It is in order to expose that fallacy, and to reveal the truth, that I call your attention to this. There are many reasons why we should do so. A modern writer put all this perfectly in one phrase when he said that the future historians of the past hundred years would probably not fail to observe that the decline, and the disappearance, of the doctrine of sin followed a parallel course to the doctrine of the evolution of man from the animal. We have placed other things and, ultimately, ourselves in God's place, which leads to the destruction of individuals, relationships, societies, and nature . Louis Berkhof. Home Groups Talk Zeitgeist.
