Many scholars, however, regard the book as a document of Nero's time carefully incorporated in one written about 90 A. Campbell The Kangaroo Marines R. MayGodStrengthenYou. II], was hung in the hall of Mill Hill school; and a memorial window is in the chapel. After education at a 2 Thessalonians school he went to France for two years. Most scholars who have analyzed the letter have concluded that the author cannot have been the man he represented himself to be but was a Jew who wrote a fictitious account in order to enhance the importance of the Hebrew Scriptures by suggesting that a pagan king had recognized their significance and therefore arranged for their translation into Greek.

As might be expected, then, notes were Calvinistic in 2 Thessalonians. Two official Paul writes to correct the error into which his converts had fallen, and at the same time he uses strong language as to the treatment to be dealt out to those members of the Church who were given to idleness and insubordination.
