The number of asylum applications from Northern Triangle country citizens dramatically increased by 13 times from to in the combined countries of Mexico, Belize, Costa Rica, Nicaragua, and Panama. It puts a human face to a segment who cross to work incredibly hard, who put themselves through an annual ritual to improve their lives, but do so at a very high cost to themselves and their community. Today, if you are among the majority of Mexicans -- those with very little money -- working in the United States is not merely something you hear about, but something you might consider.
